

Two Great Seminars!!

*What you don't know – or understand – about basic finance can hurt you and your organization!
Dewey & Kaye's nonprofit financial capacity training series presents:*

Strategic Financial Management for CEOs and Program Managers

Tuesday, June 23, 2009

8:30 AM – 12:00 Noon

Three Rivers Institute - McCrory & McDowell LLC
One Riverfront Center – 20 Stanwix Street
Downtown Pittsburgh

Designed to provide nonprofit leaders the tools to move from simply managing the finances of their organization to strategically using financial information to ensure effective decision-making and organizational sustainability.

Who Should Attend?

- Executive directors, presidents, CEO's
- Program directors and managers
- Board members

Key Points Covered:

- ✓ Budgeting, Variance Analysis and the Importance of Trends
- ✓ Unit Cost Analysis and Cost Allocation
- ✓ Billing, Collections and Managing Receivables
- ✓ Dashboards and Reporting

Reservation Deadline: June 17, 2009

Participant Fee: $125*

Nonprofit Finance 101 for Non-financial Managers

Thursday, June 25, 2009

8:30 AM – 12:00 Noon

Three Rivers Institute - McCrory & McDowell LLC
One Riverfront Center – 20 Stanwix Street
Downtown Pittsburgh

Designed to increase financial literacy for non-financial managers and build the confidence necessary to make programming and management decisions that count.

Who Should Attend?

- Non-financial managers and program directors
- New executive directors
- Board members

Key Points Covered:

- ✓ Increase your overall knowledge of financial terminology.
- ✓ Various types of budgets: Know when and why an organization would choose each
- ✓ Variance analysis
- ✓ Purpose and connection between various financial statements

Reservation Deadline: June 17, 2009

Participant Fee: $125*

$25 discount for GPNP members.*

Class size is limited. Guarantee your seat today!

Contact Jason Bernard at (412) 434-1335 or bernard@mccmcd.com

